About us

Hotel Artist is located in the center of Subotica. It is tucked away in a quiet street, under the crowns of decades - old nettletrees. The hotel consists of an old restored building and a completely new part that resembles to the spirit of the modern era. The old restored part of our hotel was designed by famous architect, art collector and artist Raichle Ferenc, who was born in 1869 in Apatin. He lived and worked in Subotica, Szeged and Budapest. He also designed the Raichle Palace, one of the most luxurious works of Art Nouveau architecture. In the buildings he designed, which includes Artist Hotel, you can recognize the influence of Art Nouveau, in the spirit of which the most famous buildings of Subotica from the end of 19th and the beginning of the 20th century were built.
